

Saint Luke's Summer Camp for Adults too!

Saint Luke's Episcopal Church

85 Greenway South, Forest Hills, N Y 11375

(718) 268-6021 Fax (718) 268-7772

www.stlukesforesthills.org

FORGIVING—

Healing for Ourselves and Our World

Monday, August 10 through Thursday, August 13

7:30pm (7:00pm Wed start)

The Book of Forgiving

by Desmond and Mpho Tutu

Presentations by Tom Reese

Group Discussion and Exercises

$25 Registration by June 15

* Thomas Reese is the Rector of Saint Luke's Church, Forest Hills. His favorite ministry projects are in the field of education. With Master's degrees in theological ethics and youth pedagogy, Tom has designed many faith formation programs for adults, teenagers and children— especially in the areas of scripture, decision-making and contemporary life.

•

Scene Study Class —

5 evening sessions

7:30- 9:30pm

Monday - Wednesday, July 27-29

Tuesday & Wednesday, August 4 & 5

Chris Dippel invites you to explore new skills while honing old ones. Bring a scene to work on and, preferably, a friend!

Presented by Chris Dippel,*

Actor, Director, Playwright

$350 Registration by June 15

Christopher Dippel is a founding member of the award-winning avant-garde theatre company, The New York Neo-Futurists, who write and perform Too Much Light Makes the Baby Go Blind. His work was honored with a New York Innovative Theatre Award for Outstanding Performance Art Production in 2006, and a collection of his Neo-Futurist plays was published in 2011. Most recently, he directed, designed and developed the critically acclaimed You Are in an Open Field at HERE Art Center, which was showcased in New York Magazine's Approval Matrix. He has been teaching drama at Hofstra University since 2002, where he also directs the B.F.A. Senior Showcase for Industry professionals. He received his M.F.A. in Acting from Indiana University, Bloomington.