The First Reading

Sirach 38:1-4, 6-10, 12-14

Honor physicians for their services, for the Lord created them; for their gift of healing comes from the Most High, and they are rewarded by the king. The skill of physicians makes them distinguished, and in the presence of the great they are admired. The Lord created medicines out of the earth, and the sensible will not despise them. And he gave skill to human beings that he might be glorified in his marvelous works. By them the physician heals and takes away pain; the pharmacist makes a mixture from them. God's works will never be finished; and from him health spreads over all the earth.

My child, when you are ill, do not delay, but pray to the Lord, and he will heal you. Give up your faults and direct your hands rightly, and cleanse your heart from all sin. Then give the physician his place, for the Lord created him; do not let him leave you, for you need him. There may come a time when recovery lies in the hands of physicians, for they too pray to the Lord that he will grant them success in diagnosis and in healing, for the sake of preserving life.

Psalm 147:1-7

1. Hallelujah!
How good it is to sing praises to our God! *
how pleasant it is to honor him with praise!
2. The Lord rebuilds Jerusalem; *
he gathers the exiles of Israel.
3. He heals the brokenhearted *
and binds up their wounds.
4. He counts the number of the stars *
and calls them all by their names.
5. Great is our Lord and mighty in power; *
there is no limit to his wisdom.
6. The Lord lifts up the lowly, *
but casts the wicked to the ground.
7. Sing to the Lord with thanksgiving; *
make music to our God upon the harp.

The Second Reading

2 Timothy 4:5-13

As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully. As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Do your best to come to me soon, for Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful in my ministry. I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books, and above all the parchments.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 4:14-21

Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

Thanksgiving Outreach Drive

St. Luke's Church is partnering with Queens Community House to help our neighbors enjoy a special Thanksgiving meal. Please make checks out to Queens Community House or QCH (with "Turkey" in the Memo line). Checks will be collected by Deacon Joe and Ann Espenschied until Sunday 11/17. Thanks for your support!

THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

In the same way that the Church sets aside a day for all the saints, so, too, is there a tradition of commemorating all the faithful departed.

A custom throughout the church is to combine these November 1st and 2nd observances during the Sunday celebration of All Saints' Day.

If you would like to remember departed loved ones during the Prayers of the People on Sunday, November 3rd, please print their names individually on the lines below (using both the Christian name and the surname for each).

This sheet may be placed on the offering plate or emailed to the parish office by Monday, October 28th.

Thank you.
